Essentialism is the view that every entity has a set of attributes that are necessary to its identity and function. In early Western thought Plato's idealism held that all things have such an "essence" – an "idea" or "form". In Categories, Aristotle similarly proposed that all objects have a substance that, as George Lakoff put it "make the thing what it is, and without which it would be not ...

Nearly every verse of every Psalm is a description of David's life. In a sense, the Psalms are an autobiography of King David's life. Since David was given his seventy year life span from Adam, and since Mashiach is the second Adam, then we understand that the Psalms also speak of Mashiach. Further, Mashiach is called "The Son of David". This teaches us that the Psalms are, in a way, an ...
