by him in the ways of the Lord. When his parents went back home, Eli began Samuel's training. Samuel then "grew in stature and in favor with the Lord and with men" (vs. 26). Now, although Eli trained Samuel in the ways of the Lord and to be a godly man, he failed in that same area with his own two sons, Hophni and Phinehas.

the education of his sons as one of the most important of his responsibilities, he treated the matter as of little consequence. The priest and judge of Israel had not been left in darkness as to the duty of restraining and governing the children that God had given to his care. But Eli shrank from this duty, because it in-

18 As soon as he mentioned the ark of God, Eli fell over backward from his seat by the side of the gate, and his neck was broken and he died, for the man was old and heavy. He had judged Israel forty years. Here is Eli at the end of his life. He is an old man, so you wouldn't expect him to be out fighting in the battle.
