This is called PDF mining, and is very hard because: PDF is a document format designed to be printed, not to be parsed. Inside a PDF document, text is in no particular order (unless order is important for printing), most of the time the original text structure is lost (letters may not be grouped as words and words may not be grouped in sentences, and the order they are placed in the paper is ...

The demographics of China demonstrate a large population with a relatively small youth component, partially a result of China's one-child policy. China's population reached the billion mark in 1982. By 2017, China's population had reached 1.411 billion, the largest of any country in the world. According to the 2010 census, 91.51% of the population was Han Chinese, and 8.49% were minorities.

Personally I think MLM regulation in the US is in a pretty good place. Other than the host of affiliate autoship recruitment scams that still need to be cleaned up (nutrition niche, I'm looking at you), there hasn't been any major Ponzi or pyramid scheme launches in the US since the Vemma and Herbalife busts.
