Plot summary. Fahrenheit 451 is set in an unspecified city (likely in the American Midwest) in the year 1999 (according to Ray Bradbury's Coda), though it is written as if set in a distant future. The earliest editions make clear that it takes place no earlier than the year 1960. The novel is divided into three parts: "The Hearth and the Salamander", "The Sieve and the Sand", and "Burning ...

The protagonist of this tragedy written by William Shakespeare, Macbeth belongs to the rare type of reluctant villains who understand all consequences of their deeds and are horrified by them. The theme of remorse and triumph of justice is a live issue at all times, including present. The play is loosely based on true historical events.
