Student's Resources for Advanced. For your Advanced (CAE) exam you will be expected to sit four papers: Reading & Use of English, Listening, Writing and Speaking. Reading & Use of English is worth 40% of the total mark, and the remaining three papers are each worth 20%.. Remember: a low mark in one section does not necessarily mean you will fail the exam; it is the overall mark which counts.

IELTS (International English Language Testing System) is a standardized test of English language proficiency for non-native speakers of English. It is used by universities and employers to assess the English language skills of non-native speakers. The test is divided into four sections: listening, reading, writing, and speaking. The listening section tests the ability to understand spoken English in a variety of contexts. The reading section tests the ability to understand written English in a variety of contexts. The writing section tests the ability to write in English. The speaking section tests the ability to speak in English. The test is scored on a scale of 0 to 9, with 9 being the highest score. The test is used by universities and employers to assess the English language skills of non-native speakers.
