

jewish responses to modernity pdf

Ellenson, President of the Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion, has been particularly intrigued by the attempts of religious leaders in all denominations of Judaism, from Liberal to Neo-Orthodox, to redefine and reconceptualize themselves and their traditions in the modern period as both the Jewish community and individual Jews entered radically new realms of possibility and change.

After Emancipation: Jewish Religious Responses to Modernity

After Emancipation: Jewish Religious Responses to Modernity compiles twenty-three essays that explore what Ellenson calls "the commonality and adaptability that mark the Jewish condition and Jewish life in the modern situation" (p. 19). The chapters, which represent a decade's worth of research and writing, focus on five themes: reflections on modernity, the challenge of emancipation, denominational responses, modern responsa, and a concluding section on new initiatives and new directions.
