1. Introduction. In this paper, I look anew at the Profiting from Innovation (PFI) framework laid out in Teece, 1986, Teece, 1988a, Teece, 2006. The questions addressed in the earlier treatments—what determines which firms profit from an innovation, and which firms earn only meager (and possibly negative) returns—have enduring relevance for both management and public policy. 1 If anything ...

A war profiteer is any person or organization that makes unreasonable profits from warfare or by selling weapons and other goods to parties at war. The term typically carries strong negative connotations. General profiteering, making an unreasonable profit, also occurs in peace time. An example of war profiteers were the "shoddy" millionaires who allegedly sold recycled wool and cardboard ...
