The author of the Book of Revelation is the Apostle John (Rev.1:1, 9; 21:2; 22:8, also see the introductions to John's Gospel and 1 John). The title of the book describes the content and purpose of John's writing.

Four Views of Interpretation of the Book of Revelation

The format for the main body of Revelation, chapters 4 through 19, consists of four columns for the four major views: the historicist, the preterist, the futurist, and the spiritual approach. The historicist view sees Revelation as a record of the course of history from the time of the apostles to the end of the world; it is thus still in progress.
