

revenge of a not pdf

Not just heat, I realize, but also a steady vibration that soothes my sore muscles. How long have I been asleep, and where the heck am I? I try to remember what happened to me, but all I can think of is my last vision. It felt like I was in that nightmare for days. I can still smell the burned-rubber stench of Washington, D.C. Smog clouds lingered over the city, a reminder of the battle fought there. Or the battle that will be fought there, if my vision actually comes true.
